

CV Christoph Badelt

Professor Christoph Badelt is an Austrian economist and Professor Emeritus of Economic and Social Policy at the Vienna University of Economics and Business (WU). He received his habilitation at WU in 1984. Until his appointment as WU Rector in 2002, he held several management positions at the university. Professor Badelt also chaired the Austrian Rectors' Conference. He has (co)authored 17 books and numerous scientific articles in anthologies and journals. In his work, Christoph Badelt has been focusing primarily on analyzing current problems and conflicts in the welfare state and identifying possible solutions. Professor Badelt's term as WU Rector ended in 2015.

From September 2016 to September 2021, Christoph Badelt also served as the Director of the Austrian Institute of Economic Research (WIFO), while also working as a professor at WU.

On May 19, 2021, Professor Christoph Badelt became President of the Austrian Fiscal Advisory Council.